Virtual Annual Chapter Meeting Update

The Delaware ACP Chapter's 2022 Annual Scientific Meeting was held virtually on February 5, 2022. We had a very successful meeting with 85 registered attendees and 25 posters presented in the virtual poster session.

We had great speakers for this year's virtual meeting! Dr. Stuart Prenner gave an overview of Heart Failure with Preserved Ejection Fraction. Dr. David Chen discussed Delaware's Social Determinants of Health. We held a Multiple Small Feedings of Mind session this year with Dr. Rishi Sawhney from Oncology, Dr. Amy Wachter from Endocrinology, and Dr. Ramesh Vemulapalli from Infectious Disease. Dr. William Fox presented "Wh[(He)0.8 Tic7 (h9ps)-2.5 h(e)0.81.8 (.)-ontn5.4 (o)-3.1 (x)1.1l0.8 Tph.5 (t)1.6(n)-0

Committee Spotlight – Women in Medicine

Our Most recent Women in Medicine seminar focused on negotiation strategies as a woman in medicine. The conversation was led by a well-known leader in Delaware, Amy Stengel formerly the director of the Women's Leadership Institute at the University of Delaware and now Head of Learning and Development at BestEgg. She spoke about 3 main areas when thinking about negotiations. The importance of preparation, practice, and the actual proposal are key steps when planning a conversation around negotiation. The group discussed key resources to use to understand fair market value and comparable salaries for the position you are applying for and identifying financial ideas.
