

Along the way, 5 scores are displayed as examples. For example, if you scored 60% on a test, the percentile indicator at the top of the chart would indicate that you scored better than approximately 80% of the class. If you scored 80%, the percentile indicator would indicate that you scored better than approximately 95% of the class.

